

Afternoon Tea History

Tea consumption increased dramatically during the early nineteenth century and it is around this time that Ann, the 17th Duchess of Bedford, is said to have complained of “having that sinking feeling” during the late afternoon. At the time it was usual for people to take only two meals a day, breakfast and then dinner around eight o'clock in the evening. The solution for the Duchess was a pot of tea and a light snack, taken in her private rooms during the afternoon. Later, friends were invited to join her in her rooms at Woburn Abbey and this summer practice proved so popular that the Duchess continued it when she returned to London, sending cards to her friends asking them to join her for “tea and a walk in the fields.” Other social hostesses quickly picked up on the idea and the practice became respectable enough to move it into the drawing room. Before long, all of the fashionable society were sipping tea and nibbling sandwiches in the middle of the afternoon.

All of our tea items are freshly handmade in house by our pastry kitchen on a daily basis. We also cater for dietary requirements such as gluten free.

Afternoon Tea is available from 14.30 until 18.00 hrs.
